A Spiritual Routine Change for Paul (Rom. 5:9-11)

Pulpit

<Introduction> After Paul restored the new relationship with God, the relationship to enjoy peace with God (Rom. 5:1), one fundamental thing changed. His routine changed.

- (1) The '5 powers' that the triune God gives (Acts 1:4-5, what the Father has promised)
- (2) Sharing 9 attributes of God
- (3) Application of 3 ages

1. "Much more shall we be saved by him from the wrath of God" (Rom. 5:9)
  - (1) What God has already promised to pour out to us (Rom. 5:8)
    - a. God's love (Rom. 5:5)
    - b. God's glory (Rom. 5:2)
    - c. God's peace (Rom. 5:1)
  - (2) Solved the most difficult topic.
    - a. Eliminated the most disruptive obstacle
    - b. Moved from a cursed relationship to the relationship reconciled to God
  - (3) How much more joy would God have in fulfilling works easier than that?
    - a. Already received salvation from the judgment of the end times = "shall we be saved"
    - b. The absolute and final character of justification is already determined. (Already)
    - c. Therefore, it is not yet completed. (Not-yet)
    - d. "by his blood" (Summary of Rom. 5:9; 5:1; 1:18-4:25)
  - (4) The routine to revive oneself
    - a. Peace with 3 things
    - b. Routine to restore the '5 powers' (Remnant Time)
2. "We were reconciled to God" (Rom. 5:10)
  - (1) Reconciliation with God
    - a. v. 10, "we were reconciled to God"
    - b. v. 10, "now that we are reconciled"
    - c. v. 11, "through whom we have now received reconciliation"
  - (2) Transition of theme from 'justification' to 'reconciliation'
    - a. Justification: legal decision
    - b. Reconciliation: relational forgiveness
  - (3) Significance of 'reconciliation' for Paul
    - a. Completion of reconciliation by the cross of the Christ (2 Cor. 5:19)
    - b. The believers' faith in accepting the completed redemptive ministry (2 Cor. 5:20b)
    - c. Being adopted (Rom. 8:17) as a child of God from being enemies with God (Jn. 8:44)
  - (4) Remnant Routine
    - a. 3 routines of Jesus
    - b. 4 routines of Paul
    - c. 5 routines of the Remnants
3. "We also [boast] in God through our Lord Jesus Christ" (Rom. 5:11).
  - (1) Essential expression
    - a. Boast.
    - b. Current experience of Paul who has been reconciled to God
    - c. Proof of this reconciliation and boast: "through our Lord Jesus Christ"
  - (2) Other things to boast
    - a. of the Jews
    - b. of Paul
  - (3) Better things
    - a. New life
    - b. through Christ
    - c. Earned 'shalom' and 'reconciliation'
  - (4) Remnant Masterpiece
    - a. Make the '5 powers' in to masterpieces
    - b. Make everyday, every week, and every year as masterpieces
    - c. Make the posterity as the masterpiece

Conclusion: The accurate start to change the incorrect routine - spiritual routine, life's routine, routine for financial restoration
